PROGRAM SELECTION FOR ELIGIBILITY

The Obama Foundation currently operates the Obama Leaders program in Africa, Asia-Pacific, Europe, and the United States. Please be aware that, even if you meet the eligibility criteria for multiple Leaders programs, you may only submit an application for one program. If you have questions about which program is right for you, please visit our website to learn more about each specific Obama Leaders program and the eligibility requirements that apply.

For technical questions, please reach out to Submittable Technical Support for assistance.

Which program are you applying for? (requis)

Leaders Africa

Please review the eligibility criteria carefully and ensure that you meet all requirements before proceeding with the application.

Age

You will be between 24 and 45 years of age on September 1, 2027.

Location

The program currently invites individuals residing in the following African nations and territories to apply:

All nations and territories on/in the continent.

Physical Presence

This program is designed for people who are living and working in the region throughout the program, defined as September 1, 2027 - May 1, 2028. Please apply only if the region will be your home base the program's full duration. Maintaining residency is not enough to be eligible on its own; if you plan to live elsewhere for any part of the program (such as studying abroad), you would not be eligible.

Citizenship and Residency

You must be living in the region for the duration of the program and meet one of the following criteria:

- Citizen of an eligible country OR
- Permanent resident of an eligible country OR
- A refugee or asylum seeker in an eligible nation or territory OR
- Have lived in an eligible country for at least the last 5 years, regardless of citizenship or permanent residence status

Leadership Experience

You have at least 3 years of relevant experience in your issue area.

Geographic Focus

Your work is geographically focused on creating positive change for local communities, an eligible African nation or territory, and/or the broader African continent, and you intend to continue leading and scaling your work there.

Language Proficiency

You are professionally proficient in English.

Program Commitment

You can commit to fully participating in the entire duration of the eight-month program. Official program dates are yet to be determined but will fall somewhere between September 1, 2027, and May 1, 2028. You must be able to attend between 8 and 12 hours of required virtual programming each month, as well as attend required leadership coaching sessions and engage in community group discussions throughout the program duration. There is a possibility of an in-person graduation.

Political Campaigns

You will refrain from participating in an electoral campaign as a candidate for political office from the time you are accepted into the program through May 1, 2028. Selection decisions are currently scheduled to be sent in July 2027.

Jurisdiction and Ability to Participate in a US-Based Program

The Foundation is based in the United States. To participate in the Program, you must be under no legal or regulatory restrictions that would limit your participation in virtual Foundation programming or travel to the U.S. for in-person programming (if any).
